What will the webinar cover?

The webinar will offer guidance in redelivering the content, an overview of the modules and activities, and directions on how to access the digital redistribution materials.

Who should attend a webinar?

This webinar is for individuals who intend on redelivering the Revised Math and ELA Standards content to teachers in their district.

Which webinars do I need to attend?

Only the webinars in the content area you plan on redelivering to teachers in your district.

How do I gain access to the digital materials?

Immediately after completion of a webinar, you will be given instructions for how to access and download the digital materials for that content area. Registration for the webinar series is now open.

Is this webinar a substitute for teacher training?

No. The webinar series is not intended to be a substitute for teacher training. It is intended to help facilitators prepare for redelivery of the content.

Is someone from my district required to attend a webinar?

Yes, only if the district plans on redelivering the content to teachers or plans on using a combination of district-led training and the department summer training.
